

CWA applauds federal government's budget

For Immediate Release: March 29, 2016

Milton, ON – The Canadian Welding Association (CWA) is pleased with the infusion of infrastructure and skills development funding highlighted in Canadian Federal Government's 2016 budget that was recently unveiled.

"As Canada's largest and only welding membership driven organization, we are

